Summary and Explanation

The Authority's Constitution

The River Tees Port Health Authority ("the Authority") has agreed to adopt a formal Constitution which sets out how the Authority's duties and functions are executed in practice.

Operation of the Authority

The Authority is a joint board comprising of 17 members who are appointed annually by the four riparian authorities specified within the River Tees Port Health Authority Order 2016 - namely Redcar and Cleveland Borough Council, Hartlepool Borough Council, Middlesbrough Borough Council and Stockton-on-Tees Borough Council.

Members of the Authority must also be members of the Council of the riparian authority responsible for appointing them and, by virtue of such membership, those individuals have agreed to abide by a code of conduct to ensure high standards in the way they undertake their duties.

All the appointed members meet together as the Authority. Meetings of the Authority are normally open to the public.

Decision Making

The provisions of section 99 and Parts I and VI of Schedule 12 of the Local Government Act 1972 apply to meetings of the Authority and decisions of the joint board will be made in accordance with those provisions. Routine operational decisions are delegated to the Authority's officers although such decisions are subject to scrutiny where appropriate.

Staff of the Authority

The Authority is managed by Redcar and Cleveland Borough Council and is part of the Council's management structure. The officers working for the Authority are subject to all the terms and conditions of the Council.

The Adults and Communities Directorate of Redcar and Cleveland Borough Council is responsible for the management and delivery of port health services. The Authority is part of the Environmental Health (Commercial) Team, in the Health Protection and Health Care Quality Section of Public Health within Adults and Communities.

Details of the officers of the Authority, their responsibilities and the management structure are included within this document.
